- d. Any changes to the information set forth in clauses (b) and (c) above after the date of this agreement MUST be approved in writing by Artist, School, and United Arts prior to the workshop/residency. In the event that the workshop/residency was originally scheduled to take place at the School and School classes are being conducted virtually on the date(s) of the workshop/residency (or vice versa), Artist and School agree to work in good faith to conduct the workshop/residency through School's virtual platform or at the School, as applicable.
- e. School's matching payment is due upon execution of this Agreement. This amount will be combined with the grant awarded to School by United Arts. United Arts will issue a check for the total amount due to Artist within ten (10) business days of online submission of the program evaluation by Artist and School.
- f. Artist will adhere to Wake County Public School System regulations pertaining to background checks, which are required of all individuals entering a school to work with students. United Arts is not responsible for providing compensation should an artist neglect to comply with this requirement.
- g. Artist will adhere to School regulations pertaining to use of School equipment, facilities, virtual platform and supplies for program functions approved by School; and Artist will obtain permission from School principal prior to requesting secretarial assistance from any school employee for services relating to the workshop/residency.
- h. At least one teacher from the grade level(s) participating in the workshop/residency shall meet with Artist in a planning session. This may be accomplished through in-person or virtual meetings, email, phone conversations, or a combination of the above. During this session, goals and activities of the workshop/residency should be discussed and defined in writing. Literary pieces and visuals (e.g. videos, images) that the Artist plans to share with students must be shared with School before the workshop/residency.
- i. Artist will submit to United Arts an online program evaluation. Link to the online evaluation will be emailed to Artist by United Arts prior to the workshop/residency.

- j. The School Cultural Arts Representative and at least one teacher involved with the residency will submit to United Arts an online program evaluation. Link to the online evaluation will be emailed to the School Cultural Arts Representative by United Arts prior to residency.
- k. Artist will utilize the services of the School Cultural Arts Representative to maintain contact with teachers and to clarify questions concerning School policies and procedures.
- l. Artist will check with the School Cultural Arts Representative one week prior to the workshop/residency to confirm the schedule and to obtain specific instructions on the school site, materials, etc.
- m. Artist will provide his/her own transportation and make arrangements for his/her own accommodations as necessary. Travel and accommodation expenses will be assumed by Artist, unless specified in the United Arts Directory or Virtual Learning List.
- n. Artist will not incur any expenses that School is requested to reimburse without approval from School Principal or PTA President. Expenses incurred without School approval will be assumed by Artist.
- o. A School employee will be in the room or other space where students are located at all times that Artist is present and will be responsible for monitoring students' behavior.
- p. The instructional sessions (whether conducted in person, virtually via live stream, through pre-recorded video or otherwise) are intended only for the members of the School community for the scheduled date(s) and time(s), in each case as set forth in clause (b). School is not permitted to copy, use or otherwise distribute copies of or links to the instructional sessions except as otherwise permitted by this agreement.
- q. Where Artist has failed to conduct a residency because of personal illness, transportation difficulties or any other reason resulting in any way from any act, omission, or negligence on the part of Artist, not including "Acts of God," Artist will conduct the workshop/residency at a later date in the school year in which the workshop/residency was originally scheduled (the "Current School Year") mutually agreed upon by Artist, School and United Arts and at the originally agreed upon fee.

In the case of bad weather, fire, lockdown, power failure, school closure or "Acts of God" which may prevent the continuation or completion of the proposed residency, Artist will be fully compensated for residency services at the originally agreed upon fee, provided Artist, School and United Arts agree on alternate date(s) in the Current School Year for Artist to complete the workshop/residency and the workshop/residency is completed on such date(s). If the workshop/residency cannot be rescheduled in the Current School Year due to School's inability to provide or agree to an alternate date, as determined by United Arts, School shall forfeit its matching payment, which amount shall be paid to Artist.

Where Artist cannot reasonably conduct or complete the workshop/residency because of acts, omissions, or negligence on the part of School (including, without limitation, where School initiates or is responsible for the cancellation of the original date of the program), Artist will reschedule the residency at a time in the Current School Year mutually agreed upon by Artist, School, and United Arts. Artist will be fully compensated for workshop/residency services at the originally agreed upon fee, provided the workshop/residency is completed on such date(s). If the workshop/residency cannot be rescheduled in the Current School Year due to School's unwillingness or inability to provide or agree to an alternate date, as determined by United Arts, School shall forfeit its matching payment, which amount shall be paid to Artist.

- r. Artist, as an independent contractor, will not hold United Arts or School responsible for any Federal withholding taxes, social security taxes or benefits, unemployment insurance coverage, worker's compensation insurance, disability insurance, liability insurance, or any other insurance benefits. North Carolina withholding taxes will be withheld in accordance with North Carolina State law for out-of-state artists. Artist further agrees to indemnify and hold United Arts and its employees harmless against all claims, losses, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), and injuries to persons or property resulting in any way from any act, omission or negligence on the part of Artist in the workshop/residency or failure to present Artist's workshop/residency.

- s. The following credit statement must be included in all public announcements, news releases, promotional literature, programs, posters, flyers, etc.:

This program is supported by a grant from the United Arts Council of Raleigh and Wake County. Additional support is provided by the North Carolina Arts Council, a division of the Department of Natural & Cultural Resources.

- t. This agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between Artist, School and United Arts for the services, activities and functions addressed in this Agreement, and may only be amended by a separate writing mutually agreed to by all parties. Neither a contract provided by Artist nor one provided by School may substitute or supersede this agreement.
- u. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of North Carolina. The venue for initiation of any such action shall be Wake County, North Carolina.
- v. This agreement may be executed via manual or electronic signatures, and the parties agree that the electronic signatures of any party will have the same force and effect as manual signatures. This agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which will be an original and all of which taken together will constitute one and the same agreement, and to the extent this agreement is signed and delivered by electronic transmission (including portable document format (PDF) or other similar format), it will be treated in all manner and respects as an original agreement or instrument and will be considered to have the same binding legal effect as if it were the original signed version thereof delivered in person.

THIS AGREEMENT, consisting of three (3) pages, shall be effective upon full execution. I have read and understand the provisions of this contract. AGREED TO AND ACCEPTED BY:
